S.I. Special Branch Subst. File No. Date June 13, 1941.SUBJECT: Julius MARCUS

Julius Marcus was Far Eastern Salesman for the Pagoda Hosiery Company from 1928 to 1936. In addition, he was, from 1933 to 1936, the Shanghai Manager of Messrs. El Oriente Fabrica de Tabacos Inc., Manila, P.I.

On May 1st 1936, a complaint was received from the President of the above tobacco company, accusing Julius Marcus of misappropriation. The case, however, was dropped and Marcus left the firm.

He lived for some time following this with Mr. Tobias, partner of Lazarus Opticians, 126 Nanking Road. Mr. Tobias practically supported Marcus who was in very straitened circumstances. Marcus later became ill and was admitted to the General Hospital where he died, aged 56, of cancer on March 17th, 1937.

He was buried in Baikal Road Cemetery, the cost of which was borne by the Shanghai Jewish Communal Association. The deceased's effects, a few articles of clothing, were handed over to the above Association by order of the British Consular Authorities. A death certificate was issued by H.B.M. Consul, Mr. (now Sir A) Blackburn.

Among the deceased's effects were two documents, a British Passport No. 7996, issued at Singapore on 11-3-31, and a Commonwealth of Australia Certificate of Naturalization No. 19272.

These, together with the death certificate, were handed to H.B.M. Passport Officer by Mr. J.J. McGeown, British Supreme Court Marshal.

5th June, 1941. 911

Dear Mr. Sharman,

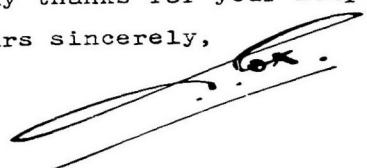

--- I have received the enclosed letter from Mrs. Ruby Marcus enquiring as to the whereabouts of her husband, Julius Marcus, who was last heard of in Shanghai in 1930.

I cannot find any record of his name in my files nor does he appear to have been registered as a British subject at this Consulate-General.

I should be grateful for any information, negative or otherwise, which you can give me to enable me to reply to Mrs. Marcus' letter.

Once again many thanks for your help.

Yours sincerely,

V. Sherman, Esquire,
Assistant Commissioner,
